Marie Rondot, Stage Manager

Holding a Bachelor's degree in Theatre (Laval University, 2004), Marie also has a musical background. Her studies in music therapy (Capilano College, Vancouver) and her passion for music engineering have made her proficient in handling, playing and miking many types of musical instruments from around the World. Since 2006, she has been working as a stage manager, tour manager and stage technician for different companies, both in French and in English.

Marie Rondot joined Theatre Motus in August, 2010 as one of Baobab's stage and tour managers.

Introducing the

MTYP Book Club

McNALLY
ROBINSON for kids

in partnership with
McNally Robinson Booksellers

A wonderful play begins with the written word and actors are encouraged to read to enhance their craft. Leslee Silverman and the artistic team spends a lot of time reading scripts and choosing the perfect season of plays that will inspire each audience.

Kingdom of Trolls is the fourth in the Middlegate Series and the first selection of MTYP's BOOK CLUB

An epic tale...

"Iceland is on! Join Wil, Sophie and their indomitable Aunt Violet on their adventures - through magical portals, journeys by magical Viking ship and fantastic tours of Iceland's Culture House, Saga Museum, Perfect Products, the Museum of Witchcraft and Sorcery, and the Museum of Icelandic Wonders. All this, and they manage to rescue Wil's old friend Mr. Bertram, solve long-standing mysteries about the disappearance of Sophie's father, prevent a serious security breach at Perfect Products, plus learn more than they want to know about the Serpent's Chain."

Rae St. Clair Bridgman is an author and illustrator of fantasy adventure novels for young adults. The Middlegate Series includes The Serpent's Spell, a finalist for the McNally Robinson Book for Young People Award, Amber Ambrosia and Fish & Sphinx, which received an Honourable Mention by the Speculative Literature Foundation and was nominated for a Cybils Award in Fantasy and Science Fiction.
